Each student is assigned a university advisor through the Student Services Center. Advisors are assigned to groups of students based on alphabetical breakdown by last names. Advisors are responsible for helping students with their schedules and academic issues. In addition, faculty within each program give advice on courses and course sequencing

The instructor provides office hours and in-class assistance to help students with academic and scheduling questions. In addition, all students in the program have access to the advising and counseling services offered through the Student Services Center. Students also have access to Veteran's Services and ARC for students needing special accommodations

Students in the program have access to the services offered through the Student Services Center, tutoring services through the Center for Academic Learning (CAL), and TRIO. Students with special needs are accommodated through ARC. Veterans have access to the Veteran's Service Center.
